

Arts for Humanity! Makes a Difference.

“The work of Arts for Humanity! changes lives...it’s very rare to mix true artistic experiences with social service. This work does both on a very high level. We must find a way to keep this work out there.”
- Mary MacRae, Executive Director, Center Stage Theater

“When I started drama I was scared. Now I can prove I can do anything and be anything I want to be.”
- Gabriel, Cast Member

“A beautiful and inspiring show. Thank you for bringing forth the spirit of these creative people.”
- Michael Geis, Psychiatrist

“I like working my hardest in drama, because I want to be the best I can be.”
- Phil, Cast Member

“We as parents feel so blessed to have our son involved with Arts for Humanity! What an asset this is to our son’s life!”
- Sally and Phillip Milano, Cast Member’s Parents

“Completely magical, enchanting – the authenticity of these actors and originality of the work is a perfect match.”
- Pamela Foster, Chiropractor

“The evening was full of love and imagination. The players were superb. The production was beautifully integrated. This is a life enriching experience.”
- Lee Percy, Hollywood Film Editor and Writer

Celebrating Humanity Through the Arts

Arts for Humanity!

819 W. Pedregosa St., Santa Barbara, CA 93101

(805) 687-6615

create@artsforhumanity.com www.artsforhumanity.com

BECOME INVOLVED WITH ARTS FOR HUMANITY!

Please call (805) 687-6615 to find out more about:

- Theatre/Dance Production
- Volunteer/Internships
- Community Expressive Arts Groups
- Training Program

ENCLOSED IS MY TAX DEDUCTIBLE GIFT OF:

$500 Producer     $100 Creator     $50 Artisan
 $25 Player     $ (Other)

Arts for Humanity!
819 W. Pedregosa St.
Santa Barbara, CA 93101

Celebrating Humanity Through the Arts

Celebrating Humanity Through the Arts